The Daily Courant.

Thursday, July 6. 1721.

London, July 6.
Yesterday arrived a Mail from Flanders.

Rome, June 21.

ON the 14th Instant the Pope held a private Consistory, in which he declared Cardinal Ruffo to be Legate of Bologna, and performed the Ceremony of shutting the Mouths of the Cardinals de Rohan, de Acunna, de Bissi, Czacki, Bossu, Belluga, Peretti, Crescenzi, and Schaborn. After which, his Holiness proposed two Churches, and the Cardinals named some others, with several Benefices; then the Pope opened the Mouths of the forenamed Cardinals, and presented them with the Cardinal's Ring and their Titles. At the End of the Consistory, Sig. Bernardo Maria Conti, Bishop of Terracina, the Pope's Brother, was declared Cardinal of the Order of Priests, and was immediately introduced and admitted to Salute the Feet of his Holiness. That Promotion was published to the People by a triple Discharge of the Guns of the Castle of St. Angelo, and Bonfires were made on that Occasion for two Nights together throughout the City. On the 17th Instant, the Pope held a publick Consistory, where the new Cardinal took the usual Oath, and had his Head covered with the Cardinal's Hat by the Pope's Hands. It is reported, that Cardinal Conti will be declared Secretary of State in the Room of Cardinal Spinola, with whom Cardinal Althan, the Emperour's Ambassadour, refuses to treat upon all Occasions. Yesterday Sig. Stefano Conti, the Duke of Popoli's Son, was declared Apostolical-Protonotary, with a Preference to the others. Cardinal Alberoni's Affair is judged to be near a Conclusion; it is said he will renounce all Claim to the Bishoprick of Malaga, upon Condition he receives a Pension of 10000 Crowns a Year. The King of Spain has granted a Pension to Cardinal Aquaviva upon the Bishoprick of Lucara. The Cardinals of France are very pressing with the Pope to terminate the Constitution Disputes, without making any Alterations in the Methods taken by his Predecessour; to which, 'tis said, the most sagacious Pontiff made Answer, 'That there were other Rules to go by besides 'those of Clement XI.

Milan, June 24. 'M. de Chavigny, Envoy Extraordinary of France, is lately arrived here, after several Tours which he has made to the Italian Courts: And To-morrow he will leave this Place to return to Genoa. It seems he has not left the Court of Modena in such Dispositions of Accord as he could wish, although the Princess has done all that possibly could be expected towards it. It is believed that her Highness and the Prince her Spouse will shortly set out to the Baths at Lucca, and that in a little more time the Difficulties will be surmounted which hitherto have obstructed an Accommodation. The Removal of the Favourite Count Salvatico from the Duke of Modena, is looked upon to be one of the chief Points insisted upon by the Prince and Princess.

Stockholm, June 23. 'On the 13th Instant, their Majesties set out hence for Carlsbad, designing to continue there all the Summer. The Court has received two Expresses from Neustad, which were immediately sent back with new Instructions for the Swedish Plenipotentiaries. It is affirmed, that the Preliminary Points for a Peace with the Czar are agreed upon, and the Particulars are expected here in a Post or two. M. Hopken, who was Resident some time ago at Vienna, and been kept here ever since in Arrest, has obtained Liberty to go abroad, by Means of his Sureties the Generals Ehren and Leeuwenstein, Count Leewenhaupt and Mess. Friesen and Akkerhielm, Members of the Council of War.

Copenhagen, July 1. 'The last Advices from 'Gottenbourg say, that the two Russian Frigates 'which lately pass'd the Sound, landed their 'Crews upon an Island called Mingo, where they 'burned seven Villages, and pillaged every thing 'the poor Islanders had to subsist upon. It is be'lieved that the King of Denmark will set out 'hence on the 4th Instant for Holstein, and there 'will review all the Troops in the Provinces of 'his Way thither. His Majesty has given his Con'sent to the Erection of two Lotteries; one being 'to be drawn at Copenhagen, and the other at 'Altona, [illegible] 'pointed here to use proper Methods for preven'ting Infection by the Plague, have ordered all 'Ships to be carefully visited; and a Ship lately 'arrived from Holland, was a few Days ago requi'red to perform Quarantain. M. Gyss, the Swiss 'General's Envoy Extraordinary, being dangerously 'ill, has occasioned the deferring the Conferences 'intended to have been held with him on the Sub'ject of a new Treaty of Commerce. Yesterday 'came Letters here from Schonen, dated the 25th 'of June, with News of a Suspension of Arms a'greed upon between the Swedes and Muscovites; 'as also, that the Articles of Peace were conside'rably advanced.

Hamburg, July 4. 'Letters of the 25th of the 'last Month from Stockholm say, that the Swe'dish Plenipotentiaries at the Congress at Neustad 'having sent repeated Expresses to Court for new 'Instructions relating to the Proposals offered by 'the Czarian Plenipotentiaries, the King had at 'last dispatched an Officer of the Royal Chancery, 'with the final Conditions upon which his Majesty 'judges proper to accept the Czar's Proposals. 'It is said, that by those last Conditions, Sweden 'is to yield for ever to the Czar the City of Helsing'fors, Capital of Nyland, situated on the Gulf of 'Finland; being provided with an excellent Port, 'and very commodious for the Russian Gallies.

Bern, June 28. Advices from Geneva say, that that Republick had been obliged to prohibit Commerce with the City of Lyons, in order to preserve the Continuance of Commerce with Germany, Italy, and Switzerland. Those Advices add, that the Republick has wrote to the Court of France, an Account of the pressing Reasons which contrary to the Inclinations of the State, has made it absolutely necessary to proceed to that Extremity. M. Montach, Counsellour of State, will set out hence on the 2d of the next Month to Arsberg, in order to confer with the Heads of the neighbouring States, relating to the Measures to be taken with Respect to France, since the City of Geneva has forbid all Commerce with Lyons, and refused giving Passage to French Goods into Germany.

Bern, July 2. M. Montach is this Day set out for Arsberg, to confer with the Deputies of Geneva, Neufchatel, Soleure, and Fribourg, to concert proper Measures against the Plague. It is reported, that the Troops will be reinforced that are posted to guard the Passages in the Country de Vaux. The Diet of Baden will shortly be assembled: The Deputies who are to assist there on the Part of this Canton, are Mess. Stiguer and Tillet.

Brussels, July 7. An Express having some Days ago brought the Marquess de Prié an Account that the Countess of Aspremont, his Daughter, was dangerously ill at Maestricht, his Excellency immediately sent thither one of his chief Physicians from this City; and has received News since, that her Distemper is the Small Pox, which it is hoped will not prove Mortal. On the 2d Instant, the Princess de la Tour and Taxis returned hither from Francfort, and has since been complimented on her Arrival by great part of the Nobility. On the 3d Instant at Night, several Scotch Recruits marched through this City to the Regiment of that Nation in the Dutch Service in Garrison at Namur. The Prince of Rubempré gives an Entertainment To-Day to Count Windisgratz, the Pope's two Internuncios, and to several Persons of Distinction at Rochefort, the fine Country Seat which the Elector of Bavaria caused to be built here formerly within a League of this City, at the Entrance into the Forest of Soignies.

Falmouth, July 1. Yesterday sailed the Onslow for Guiney; the Cancer from the West-Indies for London; the Betty of Pensilvania from Jamaica, for London; and seven Sail of Colliers for Plymouth and Topsham. Arrived the King George Packet, with one Mail from Corunna; and the Rosemary of this Place from Morlaix, for Ostend.

Dartmouth, July 2. Yesterday came into this Harbour the Mary of this Place from Plymouth, for London; the Happy Return of Whitby from Milford; and the Success of London from Milford, for this Place. This Day came in the Union of Limington from Milford, for this Place.

Cowes, July 2. Yesterday arrived the Sarah from New-England.
